AMUSEMENTS.

Donaldson's Dime Museum.

Crowded houses are the order of the day and night at this place of amusement. The curio halls present a pleasing appearance. The Turco-Spanish beauty, proves one of the most attractive features. The lady is not only beautiful, but educated, and delights the ladies and children. At the other side of the hall is to be seen the fat girl, that mountain of flesh, only eleven years of age and weighing 300 pounds. Miss Thornton, the Canadian nightingale, who appears in the theater, has a clear soprano voice, while Mr. Nororth delights the audience with his musical specialties. There are, besides, a number of other specialty artists.

The following numbers drew the capitals in the Louisiana State Lottery yesterday: $24,440, draws $11,000; $45, $25,000; $78,786; $1000; $688, $6000; $2,197,600.

The summary of the assessors' books, published in another column, will be interesting to politicians as well as tax-payers, as it was the number of votes in each ward.
